EXPLANATION OF THE 1ST TWO PARAGRAPHS
THE RAINBOW FAIRIES (L. M. Hadley)

This is a very interesting poem about the Sun, Clouds and the formation of a Rainbow.

It is about two clouds who were floating through the sky, but they were moving so fast that they bumped their heads and started crying. Their tears started falling in the form of rain.

Then the Sun looked out and told the clouds "Never mind my dear, I will send my little fairy folk, to dry your falling tears".

THE RAINBOW FAIRIES

Two little clouds on a summer's day,
Went flying through the sky.
They went so fast they bumped their heads,
And both began to cry.

Old Father Sun looked down and said,
"Oh! Never mind, my dears,
I'll send my little fairy folk,
To dry your falling tears."

In our next worksheet, we will read about the Rainbow Fairies who came to dry the tears of the clouds and how the Rainbow was formed in the sky in the last 2 paragraphs.

Meanings from the poem

1) Bumped = hit
2) Never mind = do not worry
3) Folk = people
