Mouths

Dorothy Aldis

I wish I had two little mouths
Like my two hands and feet – A little mouth to talk with
And one that just could eat .

Because it seems to me mouths have

So many things to do-

All the time they want to talk

They are supposed to chew!

Summary of the poem : In this poem the child wonders to have two mouths. “ like we have two hands , two ears ,two legs but only one mouth”. Our mouth has so many things to do such as to chew ,to talk and to eat. But we have only one mouth which help us to talk as well as eat and chew.
