Wishing you Happy Rabindra Jayanti....

Now, read the instructions given below thoroughly before proceeding with the tasks assigned.

(Read aloud the following passage, maintaining proper pronunciation, expression and punctuation. Take the help of your parent, wherever necessary.)

Then copy the passage on a sheet of paper in cursive handwriting. Write the underlined words, separately, on that sheet. Also, write down the meanings of the underlined words with the help of the dictionary. Write the date and name this worksheet as - Handwriting and Spelling.

Binya belonged to the mountains, to this part of the Himalayas, known as Garhwals. Dark forests and lonely hilltops held no terrors for her. It was only when she was in the market -town, jostled by the crowds in the bazaar, that she felt rather nervous and lost. The town, five miles from the village, was also a pleasure resort for tourists from all over India.

Binya was probably ten. She may have been nine or eleven, she couldn't be sure because no one in the village kept birthdays; but her mother told she'd been born during a winter when the snow had come up to the windows and that was just over ten years ago, wasn't it? Two years later her father had died; but his passing had made no difference to their way of life. They had three tiny terraced fields on the side of the mountain and they grew potatoes, onions, ginger, beans, mustard and maize; not enough to sell in the town, but enough to live on.

Now read this passage again, and copy only the different questions given below and answer them on a separate sheet of paper. Remember to mention the date and name this worksheet as - Comprehension.
