Health is Wealth

“Health is Wealth” is a famous proverb which means real wealth in life is not money but good and sound health. Our happiness depends mostly on our health condition so, health is the most important part of our life. Body fitness is the simple secret of healthy life. A person with good health, enjoys his wealth. The real wealth can be obtained by following healthy habits that we grow over a period of time, like having food, proper exercise and good sleep. It is rightly said healthy body is a wealthy body.
