Hello my Dear Children !

A very good morning to you all !

I hope you have already completed your last assignment in 'Handwriting and Spelling'. Today, there's another assignment for you. But, before you proceed with your assignment, go through the instructions given below, thoroughly and carefully.

*Read the following passage aloud maintaining proper pronunciation, expression and punctuation. Take the help of your parents, wherever necessary.

*Copy the passage on a sheet of paper, in cursive.

*Memorize the highlighted words and then write them down, on the same sheet of paper, as mentioned above, under the heading, 'Spellings'.

*Arrange the worksheets along with the answer sheets datewise in a file, ready to be submitted on the opening day of the session.

Hesitantly, nervously, Binya approached the group. Normally, she would have turned and fled; but the attraction was the pretty blue umbrella. It had cast a spell over her, drawing her forward, almost against her will. "What's that on her neck?" asked the younger woman. "A necklace of sorts." "It's a pendant -- see, there's a claw hanging from it!" "It's a tiger's claw," said the man beside her. (He had never seen a tiger's claw.) "A lucky charm. These people wear them to keep away evil spirits." He looked to Binya for confirmation, but Binya said nothing.

"Oh, I want one too!" said the woman, who was obviously his wife. "You can't get them in shops." "Buy hers, then. Give her two or three rupees, she's sure to need the money." The man, looking slightly embarrassed but anxious to please his young wife, produced a two rupee note and offered it to Binya, indicating that he wanted the pendant in exchange. Binya put her hand to the necklace, half afraid that the woman would snatch it away from her. Solemnly, she shook her head. The man then showed her a five-rupee note, but again Binya shook her head.

"How silly she is!" exclaimed the young woman. "It may not be hers to sell," said the man. "But I'll try again. How much do you want -- what can we give you?" And he waved his hand towards the picnic things, scattered about on the grass.

Now, read the following pages aloud twice to know how two different letters can make one sound and one sound ending..

On a separate sheet of paper, mention the worksheet no. and date. Then, choose any two letters of your own from the ones given above and write down two new words with each to show how they can make one sound ending.

This work needs to be done under the heading "Spelling I".

Till we get to study the next chapter, have a great weekend...!! 😊😊
