A very good morning, children !

Did you complete the last assignment given in 'Handwriting & Spelling'?

I hope you have done that...

Today I am back with another assignment for you. But, before you proceed with your task, do go through the instructions carefully.

Read the following passage aloud, maintaining proper pronunciation, expression and punctuation. If necessary, take the help of your parents.*

On a sheet of paper, copy the passage in cursive.*

Memorize the highlighted words and then write them down on the same sheet of paper, as mentioned above, under the heading, 'Spellings'.*

Arrange all the worksheets, along with the answer sheets, date wise in a file, ready to be submitted on the opening day of the session.

.....Without any hesitation, Binya pointed to the umbrella. "My umbrella!" exclaimed the young woman. "She wants my umbrella. What cheek!" "Well, you want her pendant, don't you?" "That's different." "Is it?" The man and his wife were beginning to quarrel with each other. "I'll ask her to go away," said the older woman. "We're making such fools of ourselves." "But I want the pendant!" cried the other petulantly. And then, on an impulse, she picked up the umbrella and held it out to Binya. "Here, take the umbrella!"

Binya removed her necklace and held it out to the young woman, who immediately placed it round her own neck. Then Binya took the umbrella and held it up. It did not look so small in her hands; in fact, it was just the right size.

She had forgotten about the picnickers, who were busy examining the pendant. She turned the blue umbrella this way and that; looked through the bright blue silk at the pulsating sun; and then, still keeping it open, turned and disappeared into the forest glade.

Binya seldom closed the blue umbrella. Even when she had it in the house, she left it lying open in a corner of the room. Sometimes Bijju snapped it shut, complaining that it got in the way. She would open it again a little later. It wasn't beautiful when it was closed.

Whenever Binya went out ---- whether it was to graze the cows, or fetch water from the spring, or carry milk to the little tea shop on the Tehri road --- she took the umbrella with her. That patch of sky-blue silk could always be seen on the hillside.....
