Character List

Gregor Samsa

A traveling salesman and the protagonist of the story. Gregor hates his job but keeps it because of the obligations he feels to pay off his father's debt and care for his family. He has transformed into a large bug and spends the rest of his life in that state.

Although hideous and unrecognizable to others, Gregor retains his some of his inner life and struggles to reconcile his lingering humanity with his physical condition.

Grete Samsa

Gregor's sister. Grete is a young woman on the cusp of adulthood. She initially shows great concern for Gregor, but her compassion gives way to possessiveness and resentment as the effects of Gregor's transformation on her life slowly take their toll.

The father

Gregor's father. The failure of his business has left him exhausted and emotionally broken, and he is forced to return to work again after Gregor's metamorphosis. Despite the beneficial effects his new employment has on him, he expresses considerable hostility toward Gregor.

The mother

Gregor's mother. Frail and distressed, the mother is torn between her love for Gregor and her horror at Gregor's new state. Grete and Gregor's father seek to protect her from the full reality of her son's transformation.

The charwoman

An elderly widow and the Samsa family's cleaning lady. Taken on by the Samsas after their regular maid quits because of Gregor, she is a blunt, honest woman who faces the reality of Gregor's state without fear or disgust.

The office manager

Gregor's boss. Distrustful and overbearing, the office manager insinuates that Gregor has been doing a poor job at work. He flees in terror upon seeing Gregor.

The boarders

Three temporary boarders in the Samsas' house. The boarders greatly value order and cleanliness, and thus become horrified when they discover Gregor.

The maid

The Samsas' original maid. She is terrified by Gregor and begs the family to fire her.

4. A Strange Transformation

Comprehension

- A. 1. Gregor has changed into a monstrous verminous bug. He had a hard back now and arched abdomen divided into bow-like sections. His numerous thin legs flickered helplessly and he increased in size.
2. Gregor was a travelling salesman. He was not happy with his job profile and was tired of dealing with the problems of travelling and constantly changing human relationships.
3. Gregor continued with his job for his parent's sake else he would have quit it ages ago. His goal in life was to save the money to pay off his parents' debt which would take him five or six years to collect.
4. Gregor was thinking about the incomplete tasks and the best possible way to reach office on time. He was thinking about it in a haste, without being able to make the decision to get out of bed.
5. Gregor's voice sounded unmistakably like his earlier voice but this time it was mixed with a painful squeaking.
6. Gregor could not get out of his bed because he was unusually wide. He needed arms and hands to push himself upright in place of which he had numerous thin legs.
- B. 1. a. Gregor said these words to himself while deciding whether to get up for office or not.
- b. The job profile he was working at was being referred to as 'foolishness'.
- c. No, Gregor was not able to sleep longer as he tried a hundred times to go back to sleep by keeping his eyes closed for a longer time but failed.
2. a. The manager said these words to the servant girl.
- b. 'Something' in the above lines was Gregor himself who had fallen down with a loud thud.
- c. Gregor has fallen as he swung himself with all his might but was not able to control his huge body.
- C. 1. Shocked-his huge body-fragile legs not matching his body-scared to some extent-not a good transformation
2. Shocked at first-gone through what all changes came in oneself-tried to accept-respect oneself for however they are.
