To Write a composition on a historical character whom you admire the most.
Eg:- Shivaji or Subhas Chandra Bose or Mother Teresa or as you wish.
Points you might keep in your mind while writing the topic are as follows.

1st para -

you might start by introducing the character and briefly talk about what you will be writing - you might start out by explaining when, where and to whom this person was born. you might talk about what type of childhood this person had, ^{whether they had} any big experiences that made them into the person they were.

Next para -

you can talk about what the person did that made them famous. you might also want to include interesting things that you found fascinating about this person's personal life.

Conclusion - you have to summarize everything you have written about this person in this body.
