Hello, children! Do you know what is the day today? Yes, it's Friday. But today is not only Friday, but also the birthday of Rabindranath Tagore, one of the greatest writers of India. So, before get going with the worksheet, let's pay our heartfelt homage to this great soul!

(Read aloud the following passage, with proper pronunciation, punctuation and expression. Take the help of your parent, wherever necessary. Then copy the passage in cursive handwriting, on a sheet of paper. Memorize the spellings of the highlighted words and write them, separately, on that sheet of paper, under the heading 'Spellings'. Read the passage again for answering the questions, given for comprehension, given below and answer in the same answer sheet. Arrange the worksheets, date-wise, in a file, to be submitted on the opening day of the session.)

But the milk was proved too rich for him and he was put on a diet of raw mutton and cod-liver oil, to be followed later by a more tempting diet of pigeons and rabbits.

Timothy was provided with two companions-Toto, the monkey, who was bold enough to pull the young tiger by the tails and then climb up the curtains if Timothy lost its temper; and a small mongrel puppy, found on the road by Grandfather.

At first, Timothy appeared to be quite afraid of the puppy and darted back with a spring, if it came too near. He would make absurd dashes at it with his large forepaws and then retreat to a ridiculously safe distance. Finally, he allowed the puppy to crawl on his back and rest there.

Please refer to the two passages, dated 27/4/20 and 8/5/20, given under handwriting and spelling worksheets. Read the two passages twice or thrice to know the story.

Then complete the exercise as it is instructed;

[Copy the questions and solve them on a sheet of paper date wise. Keep the worksheets ready in a file to be submitted on the opening day.]
