Worksheet No. : 13

Hi! Children! A very good morning to you all! Hope you have completed your last assignment in 'Handwriting and spelling'. Today, there's another assignment for you. But before proceeding with your assignment, go through the instructions given below, thoroughly and carefully.

*Read the following passage aloud with proper pronunciation, expression and maintaining proper punctuation. Take the help of your parents, wherever necessary.

*Copy the passage, in cursive writing, on a sheet of paper.

*Memorize the highlighted words and then write them down on the same sheet of paper, as mentioned above, under the heading 'Spellings'.

*Arrange the worksheets along with the answer sheets, datewise, in a file, ready to be submitted on the opening day of the session.

"One of these days," declared Grandmother in her prophetic manner, "we are going to find Timothy sitting on Mahmoud's bed, and no sign of the cook except his clothes and shoes!" Of course, it never came to that, but when Timothy was about six months old, a change came over him; he grew steadily less friendly. When out for a walk with me, he would try to steal away to stalk a cat or someone's pet dog. Sometimes at night , we would hear frenzied cackling from the poultry house, and in the morning, there would be feathers lying all over the verandah. Timothy had to be chained up more often. And finally, when he began to stalk with villainous intent, Grandfather decided it was time to transfer him to a zoo.

Reserving a first class compartment for himself and Timothy -- no one would share a compartment with them -- Grandfather took him to Lucknow where the zoo authorities were only too glad to receive, as a gift, a well-fed and fairly civilized tiger.

About six months later, when my grandparents were visiting relatives in Lucknow, Grandfather took the opportunity of calling at the zoo to see how Timothy was getting on. I was not there to accompany him but I heard all about it when I returned to Dehra.

Arriving at the zoo Grandfather made straight for the particular cage in which Timothy had been interned.

It's time now for some creative writing..... Here you have to draw a picture and then describe it.

You know we are amidst corona virus pandemic. You are also aware of certain healthy habits to prevent yourselves from being affected by this virus.

Now you have to draw pictures of five healthy habits on a separate sheet of paper and then describe each picture in one sentence, on another sheet. So, you are supposed to write five sentences on five habits. It has to be done under the heading, 'Five healthy habits to fight corona'. Then you have to attach both the sheets and arrange them, datewise, in a file to be submitted on the opening day of the session.

# This is a project work and it carries 10 marks.

You are supposed to use only pencil or crayon colours and no water colour or sketch pen is allowed.

That's all for today!!!

Bye !!!
