(Please read the chapter, 'Peter's Ghost Dog' from your English Literature text book, Wind Chime - 4. Then work out the exercises, mentioned in this worksheet, neatly in your notebook henceforth. You will leave both the sides of the first page blank. You are supposed to make a Contents page on the first page, with columns under the heads: date, worksheet number, chapter number and chapter name and teacher's signature. Ensure neat and tidy work. Follow the exact pattern given below, for making the Contents page)

A) Answer the following questions :-

Q1) Why was Peter lonely?

Ans) Peter was lonely because he did not have brothers, sisters, dogs or rabbits. He only had his toys and books.

Q2) What did Peter find in his room when he was crying?

Ans) When Peter was crying, he found a little brown dog, sitting on the corner of his bed. It was looking at him lovingly.

Q3) What did Peter's friends do when he told them about Sniffy?

Ans) When Peter took Sniffy to show to his friends and told them about it, they just laughed. Peter understood that his friends couldn't even see Sniffy and that's why they laughed.

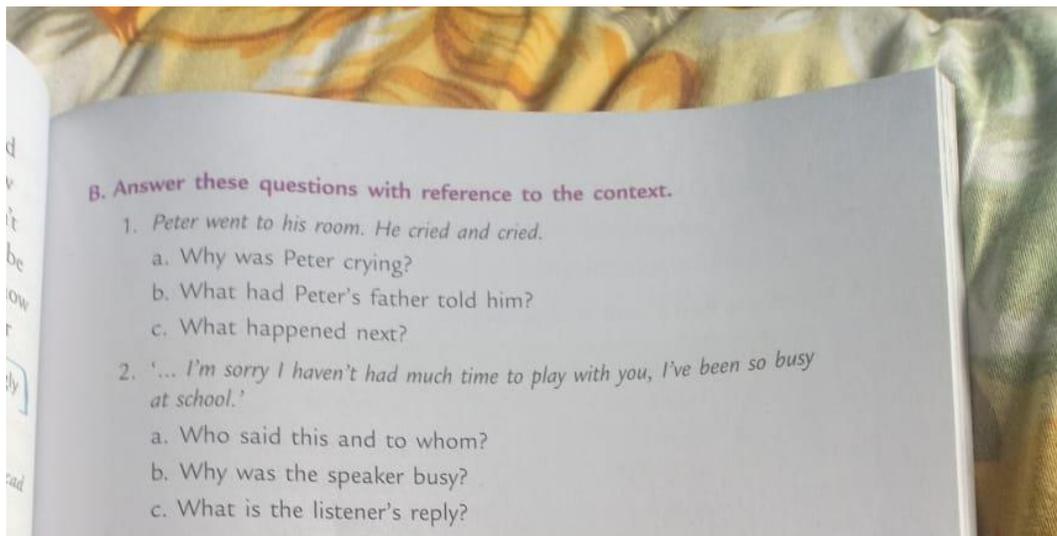

Q4) Why did Peter's mother take him to the doctor?

Ans) Peter's mother took him to the doctor because she became worried to see Peter spending too much time on his own.

Q5) What happened when Peter started going to the primary school?

Ans) When Peter started going to the primary school, he went to school everyday. He started making new friends and became busy with homework and the school club he had joined. Now he began to spend less and less time with Sniffy.

B) Reference to the context :- (Pg no.- 49)

Ans1 a) Peter asked his father to gift him a dog on his birthday. But his father was not ready to give him his wished gift at that very moment. So Peter was crying.

b) Peter's father told him that they were having a small house where all the three of them, Peter, his father and mother, had to go out in their respective jobs. There would be no one to accompany the dog in their absence. He also assured Peter that soon they would work hard, make money and shift to a bigger house where Peter could have two dogs if he liked.

c) After Peter 's father denied to bring him dog, Peter started crying but just then only, he noticed a little brown dog, sitting at the corner of his bed and looking at him lovingly. Soon Peter picked it up, began to cuddle it and both of them became good friends.

Ans2 a) Peter said this to Sniffy.

b) The speaker, Peter, was busy because he had gone to primary school, and that's why he had a very busy daily routine.

c) The listener, Sniffy replied that it was happy that Peter had started making other friends. So now it was going to help other children who were also lonely as Peter was before. But he could have Sniffy by his side whenever Peter would think of it.

Remember to fill up the Contents page, regularly, whenever you're copying or working out any given exercises in the notebook.
