Read the extract carefully and answer the questions that follow:

“Youth is impulsive. When our young men grow angry at some real or imaginary wrong and disfigure their faces with black paint, it denotes that their hearts are black and that they are often cruel and relentless and our old men and old women are unable to restrain them. Thus it has ever been.”

i) Who is the speaker? Name the place where he delivered the speech

ii) How is youth by nature? When do they grow angry?

iii) What do young men do when they are angry? What does it denote?

iv) Who is referred to as the God of the natives? How does Chief Seattle proves that the white man's God is not the God of the natives?

v) Explain why there is “no place dedicated to solitude”

vi) How does Chief Seattle explain the common destiny of man?

NOTE: Make a 120 pages copy for prose and poetry

   Bifurcate it. First half should be for prose and the second half

   For poetry.

   On the first page write the content as mentioned in ws-19

   Using a black pen do your work neatly.
