Domestic and wild animals.

Some animals are very friendly and like to be around us. These animals can be kept at home or on farms. They are known as domestic animals.

The domestic animals that live with us in our homes are called pet animals. Cats and dogs are pet animals.

The domestic animals that live on farms are known as farm animals. Cows and buffaloes are farm animals. They are useful to us.

Some animals are not very friendly. They live in forest. These animals are called wild animals like lion, tiger and bear.
